FUTURE TALENT
NETWORK

BE PART OF THE FUTURE OF HOME BUILDING

The Future Talent Network is an online knowledge and support hub for those new to the home building industry. It is here to keep you informed on industry news, support you in your career development, and provide you with contacts to build your industry connections.

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

By joining the Future Talent Network you will be able to connect with others working in similar roles across the UK allowing you to share learning and expertise. It will also help you to build your profile in the industry and expand your knowledge and skills.

The network is founded by the Home Builders Federation (HBF) and membership is open to employees identified as future leaders by HBF member organisations. Individuals must be new entrants to the sector.

As part of the network you can enjoy benefits such as:

- Webinars and training
- Podcasts and interviews with industry experts
- Volunteering opportunities
- HBF newsletters and member policy updates
- Access to HouseBuilder magazine
- Site visits and networking opportunities

HOW DO I JOIN?

Joining the Future Talent Network is simple. Visit www.hbf.co.uk/futuretalent and complete the online application form. Once you have completed this, follow the instructions on our website to submit and our membership team will be in touch.

All new members will receive a welcome pack, which will provide you with further details of the benefits and support available to you.

Get involved now and start building your professional development!
